

Simon Bailey Bass-Baritone

Simon Bailey has received much praise for his interpretations of a diverse and eclectic range of over 100 principal roles and repertoire. A choral scholarship at Clare College, Cambridge preceded postgraduate study at the RNCM Manchester as a Peter Moores Foundation scholar, and at the Accademia del Teatro alla Scala in Milan.

In 2002 Simon was invited by incoming Intendant, Bernd Loebe, to join the company of the Oper Frankfurt where he remained until 2015. Simon has since developed a highly successful career on both the operatic and concert stages, in demand with leading opera houses and orchestras throughout Europe.

Recent engagements include Nicanor/Satan in David Felicien's Herculanum for Wexford Festival Opera, Bach Weihnachtsoratorium in Gießen, Wetzlar and Frankfurt, The Kingdom in Bad Homburg, Köln and Bonn and further performances as Leporello for Oper Frankfurt. Plans for 2017 and beyond include his role debut as Jochanaan Salome for Staatsoper Stuttgart, Adam Ochsenchwanz in Krenek's Schwergewicht for Oper Frankfurt, Shaklovity Khovanshchina and Shishkov From the House of the Dead for Welsh National Opera, as well as appearances with Opéra National du Rhin, Strasbourg.

Highlights in 2015/16 included role debuts as Kaspar Der Freischütz for Oper Stuttgart, Gunther Götterdämmerung in the Oper Frankfurt Ring cycle; a return to the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden as Sirocco in Chabrier's L'étoile; reprising the roles of Figaro Le nozze di Figaro and Achilla Giulio Cesare in Frankfurt. Simon also appeared as Kaspar Der Freischütz with the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment at the Royal Festival Hall, and as a last-minute replacement for Oper Frankfurt as Fernando Villabella in La gazza ladra, learning the role overnight, and in Stuttgart as four villains Les contes d'Hoffmann.

Highlights in 2014/15 included his debut as the four villains Les contes d'Hoffmann with Oper Basel; Peter Hänsel und Gretel in the new Keith Warner production at Oper Frankfurt; reprising the role of Leporello Don Giovanni for his debut at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden and with Oper Frankfurt; Gelone L'orontea with Ivor Bolton in Frankfurt; Klingsor Parsifal and Don Magnifico Cenerentola in Frankfurt. Bailey ended the season as Leporello once more, for the Menuhin Festival in Gstaad, Switzerland alongside Erwin Schrott and Veronique Gens.

Further operatic appearances include the title role in Mozart's Le nozze di Figaro at Teatro alla Scala; Méphistophélès in Terry Gilliam's production of Berlioz's La Damnation de Faust in Antwerp; Achilla in Giulio Cesare in Frankfurt and Lille; Don Bartolo Il barbiere di Siviglia and Procolo Le convenienze ed inconvenienze teatrali at Teatro alla Scala; Redburn Billy Budd at Oper Frankfurt; Don Basilio Il barbiere di Siviglia in Beijing; Truffaldino Ariadne auf Naxos at the Theater an der Wien; Zuniga Carmen for the Glyndebourne Festival.

Previous and future appearances on the concert platform include Beethoven's Missa Solemnis with the Tampere Filharmonia in Finland; Handel's Messiah with the Royal Society at the Royal Albert Hall; Mendelssohn Paulus and Handel Jephtha in Maulbronn; Handel Saul at the Kölner Philharmonie; Haydn Die Schöpfung in Dublin; Gurnemanz Parsifal in Bad Homburg and Wiesbaden; Sulpice La fille du Regiment and David L'amic Fritz in Moscow; Mendelssohn Elias in Giessen and Wetzlar. A keen recitalist, Bailey has recently performed Schubert's Schwanengesang in Mainz, Cambridge and Monmouth.

Simon Bailey won first prize in the Internazionale Concorso `Musica Sacra` 2005 in Rome.

This biography is valid for use until June 2017. We update our biographies regularly and ask that they are not altered without permission. For updated versions, please e-mail aisling.ocarroll@hazardchase.co.uk.